Spirited Contests in the Speed Ring Exciting Intense laterest.

MADISONVILLE, Sept. 26, 1879. THIRD DAY. The third day of the Monroe County

Fair proved culminating day of this successful exhibition. Before it was hardly daylight the teeming hundreds began to throng in from all directions and the crowd exceeded by far all anticipations. The full turnout by the enterprising and wide-awake farmers and citizens of Monroe county was largely augmented by a good attendance from surrounding counties, Loudon and McMinn being especially well represented. Hundreds of persons came but did plow, harnes, collars, etc., E. B. Minot enter the gates, remaining on the outside, swelling the total attendance to not less than 2 000 persons.
